Motion CARRIED

Request to transfer the remainder of the general fund economic development budget from 2018, 2019, 2019, 2020, and 2021 into the 255 account for HEDA

Community Development Director Olivanti explained that this transfer was performed routinely on an annual basis through 2017, with the renewed focus on commercial development and downtown vitality, the funding is necessary to demonstrate community engagement when seeking outside funding and investment.

Councilor Fosso , supported by Councilor Schweiberger, moved to approve to transfer the remainder of the general fund economic development budget from 2018, 2019, 2019, 2020, and 2021 into the 255 account for HEDA.

Discussion: Councilor Hoffman Saccoman asked if the City wanted could the funds be transferred back to fund 255 from 101; Treasurer/Finance Director Sheena Mulner stated that she would have to look at the statutes to know for certain if there would be any legal ramifications from transferring from fund 255 to 110. Councilor Hoffman Saccoman asked moving forward will everything go into the other fund; Treasurer/Finance Director Mulner explained that they are going to look at it each year and be sure there is a surplus, and not just have it be automatic.

Motion CARRIED

Offer RESOLUTION NO. 23-04-04 TO MOVE THE CAREY LAKE CAMPGROUND FUNDING INTO THE PARKS AND REC CAPITAL BUDGET

Community Development Director Olivanti explained that previous City Council action transferred funds into the HEDA 255 account, this action was never completed and so project costs for the Campground have been spent out of the HEDA levy; this Resolution will make HEDA whole and put the remainder of the funds into the Parks and Rec Capital budget to be used on the Campground project moving forward.

Councilor Fosso, supported by Councilor Bayliss, moved to offer RESOLUTION NO. 23-04-04 TO MOVE THE CAREY LAKE CAMPGROUND FUNDING INTO THE PARKS AND REC CAPITAL BUDGET.

Discussion: Mayor Hyduke stated that this will make HEDA whole and place the funding where it probably should've been previously. Councilor Hoffman Saccoman asked if there are any funds left over, are they unrestricted then; Treasurer/Finance Director Sheena Mulner stated they would be in the Capital Improvement revolving fund and could be used for other Capital Improvements.

Motion CARRIED

Offer RESOLUTION NO. 23-04-05 APPROVING A ZONING AMENDMENT REQUEST OF HIBBING ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

Building Official Pat Green stated that this Resolution is to rezone an approximate 40 acre parcel that HEDA owns. Building Official Pat Green explained that the City is looking at Heavy Industrial Zoning Districts that are located right next to Residential Zoning Districts and having a buffer zone of Open or Light Industrial; the Planning Commission recommends approving the Zoning Amendment.

Councilor Bayliss, supported by Councilor Fosso, moved to offer RESOLUTION NO. 23-04-05 APPROVING A ZONING AMENDMENT REQUEST OF HIBBING ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY.
